How to get there?

From the south:

From the R21, pass the ORT/JHB airport and come off on junction 32, (Bronkhorstspuit), and go east on the R25, at the junction with the R50 turn right and then at the four way stop resume travelling on the R25. You will pass the Welbekend Police station on the right and a petrol station near to the four way stop intersection with the M30 Garsfontein Road, turn right towards Witpoort. The turning to Ora et Labora is approx half km from the 4 way M30/R25 intersection. The name sign is on the left in a small cluster of trees (Right OPPOSITE is a Shooting Range Sign which stands out more!) Take the Ora et Labora dirt track, rough road, pass the first set of farm buildings on the right, proceed and take the right hand fork of the road into Ora et Labora.

From the north:

From Pretoria - take the M30 Garsfontein Road, pass the Pretoria East hospital and keep going for approx 20 to 25 km, until you come to the M30/R25 intersection. Cross over the R25 to continue on the M30. (there is a petrol station on the right), the road is signed for Witpoort. The turning to Ora et Labora is approx half km from the 4 way M30/R25 intersection. The name sign is on the left in a small cluster of trees (Right OPPOSITE is a Shooting Range Sign which stands out more!) Take the Ora et Labora dirt track, rough road, pass the first set of farm buildings on the right, proceed and take the right hand fork of the road into Ora et Labora.

The session titles will be available soon on the website - check and see.

Please invite as many other Pastors as possible to attend the conference

Subjects of sessions

Full details will be posted on the website by mid-December. It is hoped that the lectures, question sessions and informal discussion will enable pastors to preach the word of God faithfully within the African context, and handle the word of God in pastoring their people.

Who is invited

All who have responsibility for preaching Christ and accept the Bible as God's authoritative word which is without error and is sufficient to reveal all we need to know for salvation and godly living.

Books

At least five free books will be given to each paid-up conference delegate and in addition there will be many other books available at very large discounts.

INDEMNITY

For those 21 years old and above I, the undersigned, will not hold Ora et Labora, the Organisers or the Helpers responsible for any accident, mishap or loss which may occur to and from or during the conference.
